I was blind, I was lost
How did I find you?
I lost drawn, pain the cost
Tell me, how did I find you?

Was it chance? Was it fate?
Much too good to contemplate
Now I Thank God everyday
What more can I say

You are perfection
That is what you are
I see perfection
In your faults and scars
Because you love me
And swear that you see
Perfection in me... yeah
Upon reflection, you are perfection

You were calm, you were kind
How did I find you?
I was out of my mind
I don't have to remind you

But with love and with faith
I learned it's not to late
And I thank God everyday
What more can I say?

Anyone who says there's nothing perfect in this world
Doesn't know you... they don't know you
There is so much soul in everthing you do
Lifin' me up, I can see love unafraid
