Most people that I meet they talk just to have an opinion
When I climb on stage music makes up our religion
You reach out for perfection but it's all gone to fast
You end up in a place you never been in the past
You wake up screaming every other night
'Some people think that they're always right'
It ain't a dope thing
No, it can't be so

No, no oh oh oh, it can't be so
I ain't selling my soul
No, no oh oh oh, it can't be so
I ain't selling my soul

15 minutes of quality time it's clear we got a situation
You keep on clashing your heads together
Stop! you need a new direction
You hope for some attention when you're passing the line
The world is bigger than this you're reminded time after time
You don't have to compromise
When you wake up and you realize it
It ain't a dope thing
No, it can't be so

No, no oh oh oh, it can't be so
I ain't selling my soul
No, no oh oh oh, it can't be so
I ain't selling my soul

You're looking for a line
That will save your life
You don't need to justify Hit the music play on
You wake up screaming every other night
'Some people think that they're always right'
It ain't a dope thing
No, it can't be so

No, no oh oh oh, it can't be so

I ain't selling my soul
No, no oh oh oh, it can't be so
I ain't selling my soul

You ask yourself
What's going well
You will never get tired of the songs at night
I ain't selling my soul
You ask yourself
What's going well
You will never get tired of the songs at night
You ask yourself
