I get tired of people who can't make up their mind
But it seems that it's me who's confused and lost about us this time
It's not that I'm running around looking for another girl on the side
I do wanna see you as the mother of my future child
But first things first, we gotta keep it that way to last Second by second,
we're gonna go through this just like the past

I get tired of the people who can't choose either side
But it seems like it's me who's confused and lost
about us this time
It's not that I'm running around looking for another
girl on the side
Oh, I wanna see you as the mother of my first born child
First things first,
we gotta keep it that way to last
Second by second,
we're gonna go through this just like the past

You need to understand that I'm your man
Don't run around like a lady
Need to go , on your way
Well it makes no difference to me

I don't wanna have a little oldie
It's one of the few fears that have
If you ever saw life as pretty we could build something to last
If you ever saw life as pretty
It will make a difference to me

You need to understand that I'm your man
Don't run around like a lady
Need to go , on your way
Well it makes no difference to me

I don't wanna have a little oldie

It's one of the few fears that have
If you ever saw life as pretty we could build something
to last
We could build something to last
