Back in '99
When I got myself and then my act together
A voice inside me
Told me to believe in my stories
I left all the people behind
I was looking for my brother
Who could stick around forever
You completed me,
You believed in me and my stories
I left all the people behind

Nothing's gonna beat us this time
Got this fucking beat on my mind
And my brother by my side
All you people stay behind

Spending all our time
Keep on building something everlasting
After one distance call
I believed that we would beat them all
Now we got people standing in line

Nothing's gonna beat us this time
Got this fucking beat on my mind
And my brother by my side
All you people stay behind
Nothing's gonna beat us this time
Got this fucking beat on my mind
And my brother by my side
All you people stay behind

When we're together
There ain't nothing they can do to put an end to me and you
When we're together
There ain't nothing they can do
'cause I don't feel like losing you

Nothing's gonna beat us this time
Got this fucking beat on my mind
And my brother by my side

All you people stay behind
Nothing's gonna beat us this time
Got this fucking beat on my mind
And my brother by my side
All you people stay behind
