She's a nightrider shining like a diamond ring
She's my Aaliyah
(She's one in a million)

It's like a screenplay of Romeo and Juliet
Without the drama
(Made for each other)

All I wanna do is talk about it
I got my reasons not to worry about it
All my friends they're just to blind to see it

She's got the looks, she's been around
I can't believe I'm on her mind

I got a girl they call her silly lover
And I would never trade her for no other
I got a girl they call her silly lover
And I would never trade her for no other

She's a role model, looks is just a part of it
She's international
(Queen of my dreams)

Her personality, her chemistry is poisonous
Don't worry, mama
(I won't be a stranger)

All I wanna do is talk about it
I got my reasons not to worry about it
All my friends they're just to blind to see it

She's got the looks, she's been around
I can't believe I'm on her mind

I got a girl they call her silly lover
And I would never trade her for no other
I got a girl they call her silly lover
And I would never trade her for no other

I can't stay up or go to sleep

Somebody tell me what does this mean?
This time she must be mine to keep Nothing should come in between

Why do I recognize this feeling?
If I asked her would she recall my name?
I never wanna stop believing, yeah

She's got the looks, she's been around
I can't believe I'm on her mind

I got a girl they call her silly lover
They call her silly lover
I got a girl they call her silly lover
They call her silly lover, they call her silly lover

I got a list of things I wanna do in my life
I'm tired of living like I'm throwing a dice
It's so ridiculous I take no advice
She's my silly lover, now she's my silly lover

I got a girl they call her silly lover
They call her silly lover
I got a girl they call her silly lover
They call her silly lover, they call her silly lover

And I would never trade her
