Moonchild still lives in my heart.
Can I ask you something?
Is your life better now?

Sometimes I feel
You're sitting next to me,
Listening to my stories.
Time always shows me
It's hard to understand
How to be myself.

Moonlight dries your tears,
Moonlight hides your fears.
Moonlight dries your tears,
Moonlight hides your fears.

Moonchild still lives in my heart.
Can I ask you something?
Is your life better now?

Sometimes I feel
You're smiling at me,
And telling me your memories.
Tide always moves fast.
Can you tell me how to find
What's inside a shell?

Moonlight dries your tears,
Moonlight hides your fears.
Moonlight dries your tears,
Moonlight hides your fears.

Come together
Do you know what you're doing?
Do you know what you're doing, baby?
