It was such lovely weather - The third day in Milano - I was sitting in a chair
The point of my high heel was stepping on a man's shadow - The scent of his cappuccino was carried on the wind of Milano - He stared me up and down as if I was a restaurant menu - The accidental meeting made my blood red like chianti - Mio... mio bambino...
Blindfold me... only feeling - When you touch me on the knee - I can feel your vibration - When you capture my secret key - I can hear your pulsation HIT ME! (japanese) - In the night I can't sleep
You sweep me off my feet
Make my body burn
(french)
