"A Stone In The Ocean"

Visit "A Stone In The Ocean" on MotoLyrics.com

I lie in my room
And listen to the sound of the city
The light of the moon
The snow on the ground is so pretty.
My friends are asleep
Not knowing a word of the secrets I keep
Nobody will care when I'm fading away

Ooh

The chill to that wind
My hearts just a stone in the ocean
The accusations begin,
Hopelessly I choke on my emotions
Somebody once said you'll all turn out fine
If you just use your head

Nobody will care when you're fading away, ooh

I don't think you're old enough to know
I don't think it's clear enough to see

Yeah

Ooh

Ooh

Yeah

Ooh

All of my friends are asleep
Not knowing a word of the secrets I keep
Nobody will care when I'm fading away
When I'm fading away
Fading away yeah
Fading away
