Hello baby, I betcha never thought I would call
Well my heart just went in with this dime
And I only get three minutes time, hear me out now

I wanna to make it as clear as I can
There's so much that I want to explain
And the final decision remains in your hands

Please remember what I told you to forget
There's a man on the phone and he wants to come home
To the woman he loves all alone

Baby remember what I told you to forget
No I won't waste any time when I hang up the line
I'll be back in your arms where I know I belong

One more minute, baby let me pour my heart out to you
'Cause I've kept it all locked up inside
You just can't tell your own foolish pride what to do

So remember what I told you to forget
No I wouldn't waste any time when I hang up the line
I'll be back in your arms where I know I belong

If it isn't already too late, let me give you a reason to wait
For the life that I'm begging to live
Will depend on the answer you give

Oh remember what I told you to forget
There's a man on the phone and he wants to come
home
To the woman he loves all alone

Baby remember what I told you to forget
No I won't waste any time when I hang up the phone
I'll be back, I'll be back, I'll be back in your arms, yeah
