It's a lovely day today
So why do I feel strange
Wasted away, I am dry
3 feet to either way
Can't help to think what may
Will be left around me
When I die
And the sunlight in my eyes ain't helping me
Cause everywhere I look it's all I see

(So I've fly)
Dreaming of another place
To wash away the pain (wash away)
So I can fly (I fly) away (away)
Can't deal with all of my disgrace
Waiting for the time (waiting just to fly away)
When I will fly away

I remember yesterday
Though some things may have changed
A different place, another time
2 trips I have to make
Bus ride I have to take
The other trip is in my mind
And the moonlight in your eyes is melting me
Rise up through the skies and reach for me

(So I've fly)
Dreaming of another place
To wash away the pain (wash away)
So I can fly (I fly) away (away)
Can't deal with all of my disgrace
Waiting for the time (waiting just to fly away)
When I will fly away

Knew that I could never be without you now
Didn't have to let me go
Only had to let me know (fly away)
Anyway for me to get away from you
Now I'll have to let you go
Didn't want to let you go

(So I fly)
Dreaming of another place
To wash away the pain (wash away)
So I can fly (I fly) away (away)
Can't deal with all of my disgrace
Waiting for the time (waiting just to fly away)
When I will fly away

Never knew that I would (so I fly) look upon your face
(So I fly)
Maybe in another place (so I fly)
I will fly, I will fly away
Anyway for me (so I fly) to find a way to you (so I fly)
There is nothing I won't do (so I fly)
I will fly, I will fly...

It's a lovely day today
So why do I feel strange
Everything around me has changed

I've dreamed of love for a lovely day
I've dreamed of love
I've dreamed of love
I've dreamed of love for a lovely day
I've dreamed of love
I've dreamed of love
I've dreamed of love for a lovely day
I've dreamed of love
