Let's kick on back to the places we know (places we know)

The path isn't set yet your life is unsure (your life is unsure)

(bridge 1)

So your running in circles got a bug in your head

Feel the needles and pins get em out of my head

Take a chance on a rumor

Heard from a friend

That something is gonna change

(chorus)

It's creeping up slowly

She's taking me over

It's turning me on

With every breath that i take

I roll up my dreams

And blow them away

Cruising on blue street my worries are freed

Stressed out and thined out i know exactly what u need

(bridge 2)

Got ya life wrapped up in the palm of your hand

Try to feel what i feel but u can't understand

No u won't be satisfied till u see

That something is gonna change

(chorus)

Rip it up and turn the page

Slip through the cracks in the stage

And u will find me there

Look past the nose upon your face

It your gonna change

I saw u movin in slowly

Caught a glint in your eye

A moments hesitation

In case ur wondering why

And u won't be satisfied till u see

This meeting of the minds inside of me

(chorus x2)

(bridge 1)

(bridge 2)

Rip it up and turn the page

Look past the nose upon your face

It your gonna change

Rip it up and turn the page
Look past the nose upon your face
It your gonna change
