Goodbye, in case I don't see you again,
Don't cry, I'll always be your friend
I'll be there, every time you smile
I'll be there, every once in a while

So go out and stand in the sunshine,
And try to make sense of it all
You still got some dreams in the pipe line
Deep underground

And everything's changed
And everything's changed
Don't try and tell me that you haven't noticed that everything's changed

Street lights
They keep me awake every night
Strobe lights
I don't have the strength left to fight
But I'll be there
Every time you cry
I'll be there
Don't even ask me why

You read all the things that don't matter
And tried to find light in the shadows
You gotta keep climbing the turnstile
The talk around town
You're never coming down,

And everything's changed
And everything's changed
Don't try and tell me that you haven't noticed that everything's changed
And everything's changed
They're only words if you don't know the meaning now

How can I wait just to let you go?
And all I wanna know
Is why

Everything's changed
Everything changed
Don't try and tell me that you haven't noticed that
Everything's changed
Everythings changed
They're only words if you don't know the meaning now
Everythings changed

The secret from me is the secret you're keeping now.
