I believe my fate is tied to you my love
Nothing Lies between us Waiting for eternity to fall down like a blanket on our heads
She's leaving me behind

Don't talk to me that way
You've had your time to say
What you had to say
If you talk to me that way
My heart will bleed

You're the one I need Cos I gave her nothing
She left for something

Tears will come and hearts will fall and questions asked i cant recall the meaning see the sights through broken eyes and listen softly to the sigh were greaving
shes leaving me behind

Don't talk to me that way
You've had your time to say
What you had to say
Cos I gave her nothing

Life is so easy
When your the only one
