I remember the first time
I held you all night long
Well we're still here now
But where have all the years gone
Holding you this way tonight
It's easy to see why
Chorus:
All this time
We held on to each other
We knew we had to be strong
All this time
Through the tears and the laughter
It's still forever after all this time
In this fast movin' world
Love is made and just thrown away
But we've always kept the promises that we made
Who would of thought you and me
Would still be here where we said we would be
Chorus
