with Linda Davis
Oh you don't have blue eyes, I expected blue eyes
That's how I pictured you would be
And you don't have long hair, I thought that you'd have long hair
So this is all a shock to me
I didn't know if you would meet me
Or believe me
When I said that I was fooled
I really thought that I would hate you
I know I meant to There'd only be one of us left when we're through Chorus:
Now that we're face to face
And I put myself in your place
I see the truth
I see who's really to blame
And I won't play his game
Or try to get even
He'll know he's lost
Watching us leaving
Oh I blamed you
But I see my mistakes
Now that we're face to face
I believe in true love something to be sure of Isn't that what we deserve
There's no blame here we both end up the same here
A little wiser than we were
There was a time this would have killed me
And it may still be hard to look you in the eye
But now that all the spells are broken
The truth's been spoken
My heart has the strength to tell him goodbye
Repeat Chorus
