We were born in this little town
Grownin' up I was countin' down
Every single day
'Til we made our get away
But you said you could never see yourself
Trying to make a life any where else
This would be your home
And I was on my own
But ever since you said good-bye
I've been out here on the wind
And baby you would be surprised
At all the places you have been

CHORUS

I've seen you in
Albuquerque, waiting out a blizzard
Arizona, dancin' cross the desert
Watchin' the sun set in Monterey
Girl, I swear just the other day
You were
Down in Georgia, pickin' them peaches
In Carolina, barefoot on the beaches
No matter where you choose to be
In my heart I'll always see you
Everywhere
Now a days when I'm passin' through
The conversation always turns to you
And I hear your doin' fine
Livin' out by the county line
Gotta man that's home every night
A couple of kids and the kind of life
That you wanna lead
Guess you could say the same for me
But you and I made our choices
All those years ago
Still I know, I'll hear your voice
And see you down below

CHORUS

Maybe in
Oklahoma, drivin' cross the prairie
Dallas, Texas, isn't that where we Always said we would like to try

Never did, so maybe that's why
You're in
Every highway, just beyond the high beams
Right beside me, in all of my sweet dreams
No matter where you choose to be
In my heart I'll always see you in...
Albuquerque, waiting out a blizzard
Arizona, dancin' cross the desert
Watchin' the sun set in Monterey
Girl, I swear just the other day
You were
Down in Georgia, pickin' them peaches
In Carolina, barefoot on the beaches
No matter where you choose to be
In my heart I'll always see you
Everywhere
Oh., oh..., oh....
Umm...hmmm.....
Mmmm.....
