Im in the corner of the cockroach cafe a man hums and it makes me mad

I want to cry, but I want attention more and I need to cry but no one would listen if only i could lose ten pounds, the man humming wouldnt make me mad and i wouldnt need to cry because everyone would listen.

if only i were beautiful (to you) but you know that cockroach reminds me a lot of you the way you run when i apologize.

im getting sick of your shit and you know, i want to see you cry.

i wanna see you cry i wanna see you cry.
