"To You"

If I only had the chance
Just to know
What is in store for me
And never have a doubt

If I only knew the way
The quickest way
To get from here to there
To stand right next to you

To you I give everything
To you I show all that I can do
To you I want you to notice
Something more, 'cause it's all for you â€¦

If you only knew how much
Just how much
I want to be right there
And tell you everything

What if all I had to say
Was to sit here and
Pray for nothing else
To let me go

Because I'm lost without you
Lost without you
Down here

If you showed me everything
Like how to stand
And how to sing to you
I'd do it all again

What if you could show me how
To speak the words with all my heart
You know that I would at least try
I would try
