Let me be the rain
You thirst for
Let me be the sun
That you adore
And let my sweet, sweet ocean
Caress your shore
Let your heart
Search no more
You're my earth
Mmm
Paradise
I say you're my earth
My earth, my my
You're my earth
You're my earth
Sweet paradise
I say you're my earth

There's no place I'd rather be
Your beauty is surrounding me
For your tears black orchids bloom
Orchids bloom
My soul is fed by you
Fed by you
And water your birth, then death
It's back to dirt
Home, to you

You're my earth
In paradise
I say you're my earth
My earth, my my
You're my earth
You're my earth
Sweet, sweet paradise
I say you're my earth

Sweet, sweet
Mmm
Sweet, sweet paradise
I searched for you all over the world

Yes, search
Searched for you
All my life

I've searched,
Searched for you
Searched for you all my life
Life
Mmm
Yeah

Oh I
Mmm
I've searched,
Searched for you
Searched for you all my life

I've searched,
Searched for you
Oh I

Listen to my heart speak
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
Morning sun, morning sun
I wait for you
I wait for you
Hmm
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
Morning sun, morning sun
My earth

Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for you, I wait for you
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for you, I wait for you
Bathe in the warmth of the morning sun
I wait for you, I wait for you.
