"Stay"

I want you
I can't get you off my mind
Ooh you turn me on
Stay

I know you think it's wrong being here alone with me
But I want to understand you and the way you feel You must feel something or you wouldn't have let me get this far
So don't be afraid... just give in

If you let me have you just this once I promise never to want you anymore
'Cuz what's happening here just feels good
And I must admit the forbidden always arouses my temptations

Ooh baby come on and just let me

I know you want me to lie to you, to myself
And pretend that I don't care
But you just don't understand
You're all I ever think about

Do you think about me
Do you feel the way I do?
