I'm so right for you,
You're so right for me;
So we decided it should never be
It's a crazy game
Playing we're not in love;
When we made those rules,
What were we thinking of?
When our eyes meet,
You turn your head,
I look down and not a word is said.
It's a crazy game
Playing we're not in love;
When we made those rules,
What were we thinking of?
I've seen other people,
And you've done the same,
Hoping for a moment just to damp this flame.
It's a crazy game
Playing we're not in love;
When we made those rules,
What were we thinking of?
Love is a gamble
With dangerous stakes,
For two scared people too much risk to take.
It's a crazy game
Playing we're not in love;
When we made those rules,
What were we thinking of?
Let's take our chances,
Let's break those rules
Let's quit living like a pair of fools.
It's a crazy game
Playing we're not in love;
When we made those rules,
What were we thinking of?
