so i'll go quietly this time and i'll keep all my thoughts locked up in my mind and for the record i always was true and to my surprise i looked in your brown eyes and then you said you knew we were doomed right from the start left with nothing but silence and this simple broken heart

and we say we're all innocent who's innocent? not me
i never knew love could hurt me so i'll let it go
this episode
and maybe then i could see can't help but notice you standing there from afar and you have got your new trophy wrapped tightly up in your arms and so i guess that he's all that you wanted to have was it his smile or his charm? something that i never had?

i should have known we were doomed right from the start i'm left with nothing but silence and my simple broken heart

who's innocent? not me
i'll let it go

i'll let it go

let it go

i never knew love could kill me so i'll let it go

and i'll just let it go (let it go) let it go (let it go)
let it go (let it go)
let it go
let it go (let it go)
let it go (let it go)
let it go
let it go
