Mine, His, Alive
Mine, His, Alive

You say that you want to be free
Who says that you have to be

Mine, His, Alive
Mine, His, Alive

When the demons come into your mind

Mine, His, Alive
Mine, His, Alive

I see through all your bullshit
I see through all your lies
I see through all your bullshit
I see through all your lies

And you're mine, you're not his, you're lucky to be alive
You're mine, you're not his, you're lucky to be alive

You say that you want to be free
Who says that you have to be

Mine, His, Alive
Mine, His, Alive
