Chain

I feel the words falling in a rhythm
I see the wind bearing its decision to never give in
I'm amazed
I hear the words form some kind of silence
When the world falls into violence
We'll never give in

Chain

I see the world falling in a rhythm
I feel the wind bearing its decision to never give in
I'm afraid
I hear the words form some kind of silence
When the world falls into violence
They'll never give in

Chained in silence
The rhythm of violence
Change all around us
Change in everything you see

I'm amazed
I see the world in revolution
Within the darkness a solution
We'll never give in

Chained in silence
The rhythm of violence
Change all around us
Change in everything you see
