

Fire Theft, The "Waste Time"

Don't wanna waste time
Is it a matter of mind?
Don't wanna lose control
I've gotta say goodbye, my love

We just couldn't get it right
It was a matter of time
All I wanted was to stay there in your arms
But when the door opened
I had to say goodbye, goodbye

And I knew that it was not a phase
And I waited all those years to hear you say
I always loved you
Only you, only you

But I knew that it was just a phase
My Juliet

Though I still have dreams of you and I, together again
I can't afford to lie
I had to say goodbye, goodbye
We didn't know the future
But we did what was right
