Like the sun flare in the morning
Feel the choir, feel the thunder
Every ladder needs a hammer
Colored pencils draw the picture

See the changes as you're sleeping
Feel the choir and the thunder
See the changes go on and on
Feel the choir in the thunder

Like the sun flair in the morning
Feel the choir, feel the thunder
Every ladder needs a hammer
Colored pencils draw the picture

Sing His praises as you're sleeping
See the changes any wonder
Feel the sense of childlike wonder
Sing His praises as you're sleeping

See the changes as you're sleeping
Feel the choir in the thunder
See the changes go on and on
Feel the choir in the thunder

Sing the praises as you're sleeping
Feel the choir in the thunder
See the changes go on and on
And everybody's sense of childlike wonder

(Join the thunder)
Sing the praises as you're sleeping
Feel the choir and the thunder
See the changes go on and on
And everybody's sense of childlike wonder
