Aah, Aah Ahaa,
Aah, Aah Ahaa,
Aah, Aah Ahaa,

I should have saw the warn in signs
Chaos never came to mind
There was no way to predict it
I pulled the clouds from my eyes
And everything looked so right
That was when the storm began

When the rain came I've seen the truth
It wasn't them it was all on you
Had me believing all this time
That was the reason you're hurt inside
But maybe you're used to the question signs/sides?
Feeling nothing but hate inside
So I might as well just try to save myself

Hoo,

Imma say a little prayer for you
Hoping that you realise it's you
'cause everything you touch turns to a disaster,
disaster
Imma say a little prayer for you
Girl you're like a black storm times two
'cause everything you are is a natural disaster,
disaster
You're a disaster (aah, aah, ahaa)
You're a disaster (aah, aah, ahaa)
Ooh, a disaster yeah

Distraction beyond ...
I swear that your love is capable of damage
Be unprepared, haaah
Tell me what's the point
'cause you won't be hurting yourself
Ain't no excuse for the flood you've left
I had to drain it ohoo

When the rain came I've seen the truth

It wasn't them it was all on you

Had me believing all this time
That was the reason you're hurt inside
But maybe you're used to the question signs/sides?
Feeling nothing but hate inside
So I might as well just try to save myself

Imma say a little prayer for you
Hoping that you realise it's you
'cause everything you touch turns to a disaster,
disaster (turns to a disaster)
Imma say a little prayer for you
Girl you're like a black storm times two
'cause everything you are in is a natural disaster,
disaster (is a natural disaster)

Ooh, when the walls come crashing down
You'll be underneath nowhere to be found
Defeated by yourself, self
There'll be no more existence
Not even no remnants
'cause your fury has ended it all

Imma say a little prayer for you
Hoping that you realise it's you
'cause everything you touch turns to a disaster
(everything that you touch)
Imma say a little prayer for you (turns to a disaster) Girl you're like a black storm times two (girl you're like a black storm)
'cause everything you are in is a natural disaster,
disaster

Imma say a little prayer for you (gotta get away baby)
Hoping that you realise it's you (I gotta get away baby)
'cause everything you touch turns to a disaster ('cause
everything that you touch)
Imma say a little prayer for you
Girl you're like a black storm times two
'cause everything you are is a natural disaster,
disaster

You're a disaster (aah, aah, ahaa)
You're a disaster (aah, aah, ahaa)
Ooh, a disaster yeah
