though once a slithered form i stand erect transformed to ask this question at your ease my blood once cold now warm my altered self reborn what kind of human can i be this shape you've taken is forbidden your changeling trick cannot succeed you must begin with what you're given is how its been and has to be look for high secret inner visions words scribed in rock in code in these to get to where the heart is hidden behold, the truth can set you free to dream... believe...reach... deep... to see... that we... can lift ourselves

i wish you well my shape shift soul device at will can change entice... take human form to seek advance how to proceed from here... what comes if what we fear... allies gets fortified inside het hey hut

i must abandon this like human form with power twist snake eyes can realize naga cut your serpent ties shed it.. shed it skin.. shed it.. shed it skin.. shed it shed it.. you won't regret it no you gotta vet the self and shed it then forget it come on and let it go the alter ego tomorrow can... chi chi chi change all the world up on my head has made me who i am a vagabond a friend to you all the days and all the nights i work my way to you to you

by design though serpentine before this life is through it's all that I could do... to be... like you believe me... receive me... for who I am. transcend oh so far and yet so near i'm m me, i'm m me, i'm m who i am i'm m me, i'm m free... myself again believe me.. receive me.. for who I am!

i'm m me
