You're the weight on this world mankind
You're a dominant force in time
Can you see what you do
It can happen to you
Your extinction if matters unwind

Mankind

When your cannons of war all align
And your blood is free flowing like wine
Can you stop what you do?
Is your nature so cruel?
To the heavens ya look for a sign

If the children are taught wrong from right
On a planet so blue do not fight
Could the lives that they choose
Free will that they use
Fashion a world more divine?

Mankind! mankind!
Emanating mass karma and fear
But you're more than just animals here
Die when you do
The spirit of you
Passes beyond earthly tears

In your darkness the sun wants to shine
Let the light in your souls be defined
By the deeds that you do
And your governments too
Cause your future's a matter of mind

all the children in this world today
Brothers sisters of mankind
If the good inside ya leads the way
There can be a better time
