I've been gone so far away
The nights and all the days
I never knew the words to say
It's been far beyond my pride
Far beyond the lies

Through the coming of the dawn
I hear the spirit song
Born into the morning light
Through the silence of the night
I feel the pulse of life
Dance within the candle light

With your skies
Blue is the emotion in your eyes
(spirit song carry me)
Now I find
Familiar as the warmth
In your eyes
(spirit song carry me)

Everything is alright
Will be alright, will be alright

Why now after all this time
Passing of the signs

On the road that sends me home
Where it was easy to pretend
Angels in the sand
The way a child understands

All the lives I've wished my own
They have come and gone
I will never be alone
All the things I've ever known
Have been here all along
Spirit song come take me home

With your skies
Blue is the emotion in your eyes

(spirit song carry me)
Now I find
Familiar as the warmth
In your eyes
(spirit song carry me)

Everything is alright
Will be alright, will be alright
