At work you know the right dancers
I play to bonus my share
My eyes don't get to see that much work
I see the blondes and the brunettes
I use my hands all the more
I never had a girl that lived next door

But if you have to turn your face
And I can watch you day or night
I listen to the words you say
Tell you if you come out right

It's just no holiday
It's just a week away
It's just no holiday
I tell you need to get away

Late nights alone with my thinking
What I would do for your love
Way down I wonder if it's good enough
What chance have you to feeling
Back to the start I belong
I've bought the things I never had before

But if you have to turn your face
And I can watch you day and night
I listen to the words you say
Tell you if they come out right

It's just no holiday
It's just a week away
It's just no holiday
I tell you need to get away

Well if you have to turn your face
And I can watch your day at night
I listen to the words you say
Tell you if they come out right

It's just no holiday
It's just a week away

It's just no holiday
I tell you need to get away
It's just no holiday
It's just a week away
It's just no holiday
I tell you need to get away
