Just one thing baby, child before you go
Just one thing baby, child before you go
There's gonna be judgement in the morning baby
There's gonna be judgement in the morning baby
There's gonna be judgement in the morning
Yes baby, you gonna reap for what you sow

You'll never make the jailhouse, for the things you do
You'll never make the jailhouse, for the things you do
But there's gonna be judgement in the morning baby
There's gonna be judgement in the morning baby
There's gonna be judgement in the morning
Yes baby, it will all come back on you

You never borrow money, what you through away
You never borrow money, what you through away
You gonna be mourn in the morning baby
You gonna be mourn in the morning baby
You gonna be mourn in the morning
Yes baby, cause you made your bed that way

Whoa baby
There's gonna be judgement in the morning yeah
Whoa oh baby
Whoa you shouldn't have made the bed that way
You made your bed that way
