Question all our hands are in the air
Question what's the son and who's the heir

Who said that, who said that, who said that to you
Who said that, who said that, who said that to me

Heaven, is a quiet place to stop, heaven
Reason, you better run until you drop, reason

Who said that, who said that, who said that to you
Who said that, who said that, who said that to me
Who said that, who said that, who said that to you
Who said that, who said that, who said that to me

Where to go and when to stop
Who's the man sat at the top?
Is there a little place for me?
Open my eyes why can't I see?

Question imagination plants the seed, question
Question far away do not concede

Who said that, who said that, who said that to you
Who said that, who said that, who said that to me
Who said that, who said that, who said that to you
Who said that, who said that, who said that to me

Where to go and when to stop
Who's the man sat at the top?
Is there a little place for me?
Open my eyes why can't I see?
