CHORUS:

We're going to Atlantic city,
we have packed our dresses pretty,
soon you'll see us mingling with the throng.

MEN:

Before we start on our vacation
we have one more obligation, let us ask Nanette to come along.

WOMEN: Why should we take Nanette along, she'll be an extra dame.

MEN: Because we fellows like Nanette

NANETTE: Oh, did I hear my name?

MEN: Please let her go

TOMMY: Please let her go

WOMEN: No, no, Nanette.

CHORUS: No, no, no, no!

NANETTE:

No, no, Nanette,
that's all I hear!

I get it the whole day through.

No, no, Nanette regales my ear
no matter what I may do.

Sometime, perhaps,

I'll have my way

when I am old and turning grey.

But just as yet it's always no, no, no, no, no, no, no, Nanette!

DANCE SCENE

CHORUS:

No, no, no. No, no, no. No, no, Nanette.
