As logic stands you couldn't meet a man
Who's from the future.
But logic broke
As he appeared he spoke
About the future

"We're not gonna make it"
He explained how the end will come
You and me were never meant to be
Part of the future

All we have is now
All we've ever had is now
All we have is now
All we've ever had is now

I noticed that he had a watch and hat that looked familiar
He was me
From a dimension torn free
Of the future

"We're not gonna make it"
He explained how the end will come
You and me were never meant to be
Part of the future

All we have is now
All we've ever had is now
All we have is now
All we've ever had is now
