I went out for a walk in the mornin what did i see a great big hole in the ground where the world used to be and it smelled like it'd been burned and it wasn't gonna turn and i never thought that it would happen on a day like today

to see my friend and discovered that the planet had come to an end and it didn't take too long and i knew that it was wrong

today

it smelled like it'd been burned
and it wasn't gonna turn
today

to smell the air i breathed it in and there was nothin there My lungs get full of pain and i'm drinkin acid rain
today
