If fate holds a purpose
You feel fate will lend a hand
It saves face deserts you
It deals grace from underhand
And every time the past's awakened
Every time your sould starts breaking

You can't stand the distance
You can't stand to not be afraid
You won't show resistance
You can't seem to run away
Because every time the past's awakened
Every time your sould starts breaking

In the face of the fire
You see angels conspire
Will they hear you desires
Will they stop your soulbreaking
Could they stop your soulbreaking
You won' say you're hurting
You still dream in the undertow
Just a safe place a haven
Just a kind face just to overthrow
Every time the past's awakened
Every time your sould starts breaking

In the face of the fire
You see angels conspire
Will they hear your desires
Will the stop your souldbreaking
Could they stop your soulbreaking
Will they stop your souldbreaking
Could they stop your soulbreaking
Please lvoe

Every time the past's awakened
Every time my sould starts breaking
