I'll force these feet to move and I feel my liver bleed
Before the room explodes again
I smell, I smell your blood my friend
I'll stop at nothing to get some Fill this dirty glass for the wrong reasons

Just stop and smell the stale stench wafting through the air
Let it wheeze right out of you
Cause you are lost and you no longer care
About the things you used to You're fluid, unaware
We overflow going nowhere

Get up, get up, get up
You've gotta drown it out and then drain the memory
Get up, get up, get up
Get up in arms over the way it could've been
Scratch your name through the surface again
I'll be with you cursing the morning

(Once excitable)
Your face contorts into a mess
(Get your back up off the wall)
When six drinks just won't do the trick
So bottoms up and cheers alike to the memory of this wreck
Have we become what our friends hate?
(Well fuck 'em in the end)

Get up, get up, get up
You've gotta drown it out and then drain the memory
Get up, get up, get up
Get up in arms over the way it could've been
Scratch your name through the surface again
I'll be with you cursing the morning

Get up, get up
And start over again
Drink up and over the edge my friend
Poison diluted by the sea

But once the ocean rolls out
It leaves the shit behind in me

Get up, get up, get up
You've gotta drown it out and then drain the memory
Get up, get up, get up
Get up in arms over the way it could've been
Scratch your name through the surface again
I'll be with you cursing the morning
