Down to the earth i fell,
with dripping wings,
heavy things won't fly,
and the sky might catch on fire,
and burn the axis,
of the world that's why,
i prefer a sunless sky,
to the glittering and stinging in my eyes.

(chorus)
i feel so light,
this is all i want to feel tonight,
i feel so light,
tonight and the rest of my life(2x).

gleaming in the dark sea,
i'm as light as air,
floating there breathlessly.
when the dream dissolves,
i open up my eyes,
i realize that,
everything is shoreless sea,
a weightlessness is passing over me.

(chorus)

everything is waves and stars, the universe is resting in my arms.
