I've got a question, I've got a question you should know
Give me the answer, Give me the answer for my soul
Give me a reason, it's for the things you said and done
Give me the answer, Why did you leave me alone?
You got to tell me, You got to tell me what's gone wrong
Give me an idea so I can carry on

Haven't got a reason for the crying
Haven't got a reason for the pain
Haven't got a reason for you lying

C'mon and tell me, C'mon and tell me what's gone
wrong
Why did you use me, Why did you use me up at all?
We had a one heart, We had a love that was so strong C'mon and tell me, so I can carry on!

Haven't got a reason for the crying
Haven't got a reason for the pain
Haven't got a reason for even living, one more day

I need an answer, Give me the answer to my prayers
I need to hold you, I turn around and you're not there
C'mon and tell me, that what you did was planned
Why don't you want me now? I just don't understand!

Haven't got a reason for the crying
Haven't got a reason for the pain
Haven't got a reason for even living, one more day

Suicide day, Suicide day, Suicide day
Suicide day, Suicide day, Suicide day
Suicide day

(really quietly)
This is the stroy, of a young heart,
This is the stroy, of a young heart,
This is the stroy, of a young heart...
