Burn It Back

i sow these streets with my own blood it seems my soul is feeling unkempt and bare. i'm just like you i'm complicated too. jealous knives in my back to spare. i'll burn it black as sin, falling off the wagon again.
burn it black as sin, lost my head. you've got one shot left and now you're done you'll turn your back on everyone burn it black as sin, time to... i feel your doors slam in my face somehow i can't replace this lust that i've found. i'm just like you my spirit's broken too.
burn my bridges into the ground.

Bullet

you're coming home to an empty space inside of you, there's no other place. you're wondering hard what you're here for, but every night you still walk out that door.
you're just a screwed up kid,

who doesn't know who he is fights the words in his head, screams he's better off dead.
met a punk with a dis wants a fight and now you're pissed it's already too late sawed off your hate what did you sell your soul for?
was it a gun and a bullet and a chance at revenge? you got props from your boys on the block, a cross to bear that never ends what did you sink so low for?
was it the time and the space and the spit in your face? props from the cops and the court a sin you can't erase he caught you looking his way hands in the air - what the hell'd ya say? i know something sad but true that motherfucker was as scared as you.
you're just a screwed up kid,
fights the words in his head,
screams he's better off dead.
met a punk like you what the fuck you gonna do?

point the piece at his eyes you never realized sell it with a pistol in the sack.
they push you so hard, gonna push right back. sell it and don't put up a fight your life has just started but it all ends tonight.

Faithless

could you be lost are you so free, do you long to be you know it's such a mystery how you washed up over me and i couldn't speak, i couldn't breathe, lest i drown but it's my kind i'll never be cruel and i'll always play the fool to be as loveless, as shameless as you. but i'm so blind i'll do it again i feel your eyes sink in so faithless as you've been.
yes i'm so lost i am not free but i long to be when life goes down, do you feel as though you're gonna drown
you're going down

Only Hurts Awhile

too much left to say, you never wanted it that way.

and now you wake up wondering why your life is tumbling into nothing left to say you always knew it'd be that way and now you poison your dreams with a feeling that seems to leave you all alone ditch you halfway home you pick yourself up off the ground and find out what it's all about.

it only hurts awhile and then it's gone again.

no need to ask just where or when you'll find yourself again.

cause you're only here awhile and then you're gone
again.

no need to ask just where or when once upon a time i'd take a drink and i'd feel fine.

but now it hurts me everywhere, sick secrets i can't share.

i always knew it'd be that way.

and now i've poisoned my dreams with a feeling that

to leave me all alone ditch me halfway home.

i'll pick myself up off the ground

falling faster towards the ground you are falling faster down and down

-----

Sherman

i measure time in seconds between cigarettes don't mind choking on cold regrets enamored with the possibility of getting so blind i don't wanna see be everything you didn't want to be let apathy set you free everything you hated we sold our souls to walk right on past you how long i've waited, unimportant, frustrated scream the lines at people between cigarettes don't mind taking something i haven't had yet been splitting my head til i can't see so you lay it all out right in front of me no time to wonder what you're gonna be

-----

Misfortune

found me dead on the side of the road, barely breathing,

but my soul was seething alone, from all my guilt and shame found you dead inside of your room, barely breathing but your soul was screaming alone, it's time to put away your pain it's time you found out what i've been on about well misfortune's plain to see when she's staring back at me

ms. fortune's plain when i came to i opened my eyes and i breathed in all the life i was pushing away before i'd go insane

i look through you and i see something there that you don't see, if only you'd choose to believe me.

you know you're more than just your pain.

it's time you knew, those eyes see right through you the things that we've known, we've held too much to keep it inside and hidden in the spaces we've shown why run, when there's nothing to hide?

-----

Blood Stained Glass

pull those chains when you turn me out remind me what this life is all about.

because i haven't felt pain in so long i forgot i was alive sure in this life, the ironies can turn so cruel but right now i'm at a loss to find one to match you.

would you forgive me i'm gifted with this poison pen.

silently, lividly waiting, for the ever end.

the sting from your faithless kiss still rings on my bloodless lips

if at any other time a love would call you mine come around and find some time sure in this life the ironies can turn so true but the sin beneath my skin means it's more than likely not me but you.

Lights Are Low

let's all go to the underground, some kind of social lost and found check all your baggage at the gate makin sense at 6 but i won't by 8 pulled like a magnet to the door the faces are new but you've seen them before spit out the truth that we're scared to say that's why we come here anyway i like to live where the lights are low, sometimes i feel there's nowhere to go.

set you alight and i'll set you free you never meant that much to me.

a couple shots and we're feelin straight we shoot it up cause i hate to wait we're talkin shit and we talk it loud the seedy kids are my favorite crowd well write your number down for me to end up on the floor i guess it ain't meant to be what's her name? well i'm scared to say... that's why i came here anyway what's my game? you don't want to know i took too much and i'm feelin low set me free cause i'm on my knees it's such a bitch you're so hard to please

-----

Dawn

she threw me away, yesterday her deadbolt locks i feel no shame she always wondered if i'd bend or if i'd break you wanna disappear from here?

til daylight comes we'll have no fear.

you pick the place, come closer, whisper in my ear

anywhere but here

locked out till way past dawn again strung out before and i never win want to sleep but sleep's just a dream that slips from my hands

i bite my lip just enough to stay awake.

i never wonder if i'll bend or if i'll break let's disappear, no fear wake up a thousand miles from here

anywhere but here

she let me down anyway

but i won't be around

you let me down anyway

When She Comes

When she comes in all degrees, no more need

Burn the taste of all away, you can't say

Try to kick a line in time, no more time

Burn the taste down on your knees, you can't see

What i want i can't say....

Breaking glass will do you harm, my blood's warm

Somehow words are meaningless, i'm breathless

Try to put your arms around what you've found

Disappears and all is gone, you can't go on
