You think you're cool cause you know every girl in town,
but you don't Do, cause when you're out at night they don't look your way, you've got
All that trendy shit and a jolly air for brains
And you are busy to watch out for that ugly girl you know

You think girls like that will ruin your style, cause a perfect
guy like
You need nomething more You're so cool, you've got everything a girl desires, you're so
cool,
With a perfect butt you can go far

You're telling me that I am thinking way too small to understand that you Have reached your goals and I am far away
And all the things you say that you know I don't want to hear,
so throw
Your empty words away and listen to what I say I'm not jealous in all the lies you tell, just take it easy,
you
might End up in hell You're so perfect, you've got everything and you are way too cool to Understand that you are out of line
