Walking around the streets of Linn?
Reloading batteries in my own way
Nobody around here would know who I am,
that's o.k
I really wanna do something new Just anything different to get into It's all up to me to give it a try
That it's all up to me is making me terrified
It looks like I'll be waiting for moments that will never arrive

When will I live my life for me?
When will I do what I want to?
When will I let myself be free
and take care of things that I value?
So when will I live my life just for me?

Hitting P.B. driving E20 north Future plans being made going back and forth
Remain passive
I do got dreams on my mind
And I really should be taking a chance
Risk my safety just for once advance
The one who is trying is the one who succeeds
I should be following my heart and my needs
But I know it's a problem for me to translate words into deeds

Please say you feel the same way
Just say you know exactly how I feel So say you feel the same way
And I will do it for real

When will I live my life for me?
When will I do what I want to?
When will I let myself be free
And take care of things that I value?
It's true, I need to forgive myself and see

It's not too late for something new
So when will I live my life just for me?
Yeah when will I live my life just for me?
Yeah maybe I'll live my life just for me?
