Take your silly words and listen to yourself
'Cause I'm living my life tonight
Nothing's gonna hurt me
Can't you understand that I can be myself
Without everything
Without anything
Without any help from you

And now we're not having fun
We never really laughed
We have to get things right
Before we end ourselves

What about me?
Do you care enough to see
That I can live my life this way
And you don't understand
What about me?
Am I the one who's going down?
cause sometimes I can't find myself
I'm wondering if this is really me

I remember those days when we first met
How simple things were then
With no heartache and no pain
And now things change so fast
That we must take the time to talk things over
And listen to our minds

We're not having fun
We never really laughed
We have to get things right
Before we end ourselves

What about me?
Do you care enough to see
That I can live my life this way
And you don't understand
What about me?
Am I the one who's going down?
cause sometimes I can't find myself

I'm wondering if this is really me
