I'm In the bar when I should be in front of you I play the pinball when I really should be skanking it doesn't matter how many times you ask me up I appreciate it but it's complicated, I just can't dance baby
I just can't loose myself

I've got an image and I have to live up on to the latest trend so nowadays I'm macho and have you ever seen a macho shake or twist his butt, I know your not so I'm not lickin' In
on the spot
'cause I can't dance baby, I just can't get in trance someone told me bad boys don't know why they're not dancing someone told me what they say is their only way to slip away
