Puffin' again so happy with his friends he can dane even in his car
straight guys should know whatever's on his mind he's got a reason for every season.
Scared to be smart so far he's everything if you're laughing
he's laughing too
just don't let him begin 'cos in the end he'll win he's got a reason.

Hole in his head, you always tried to never be lied to now you understand that he's not your friend High class my ass, you always tried to never be lied to now you understand that you have to seek someone else,
What's wrong with someone owerweight big surprise he's coming after you with a reason.

Dreamin' again, but he's not asleep his eyes are open starin'at
you
reads your mind trough his pipe and then he tells you that he's got a reason.
Impressive you guess, he couldn't show you less but still you're snowbored
like the funky bros, life must go on and this is just a story,
I've got a reason...
