I know I get what I give
Since I don't feel too good guess I don't give much Maybe I just wanna live I knock on wood everytime I feel human touch
What can I do to fit in? Kiss up to someone? It will never happen
When alienation hits in on me
My empathy is gone, my conscious blackens

And I just spit in your face
When you ask for help
My heart is made of stone

Nobody's best friend, I'm on my defense
Everyone stands alone
Another elbow hit, somebody's ego trips
Everyone stands alone

I know I get what I give
Funny vibes, what goes around comes around
But yeah, I just wanna live
With someone by myside some kind of close bond
Another spit in your face
Every time you need me I am busy with my own

Nobody's best friend, I'm on my defense
Everyone stands alone
Another elbow hit, somebody's ego trips
Everyone stands alone

When it comes down to it we all stand alone
So many times It's been shown
Hearts that are made of stone
