Could it be I'm a lonely one that made everything so upside down now?
Could it be all the lies I told that gave nightmares to me after an olympic day? you said everything was fine but I saw you through and I knew that I was just as bad as you Never said I would give you up but if I must than tell me why now never said I believed in all those things I've heard about you from those rumors now I thought everything was fine but you proved me wrong and I was taken by surprise

Don't like me, don't like me don't you know I'm good for nothing don't like me, was what you told me when I called you up
Don't like me, don't like me
don't like me, whatever I may say to make you feel that way

Could it be I'm a lonely one that turned everything so upside down now?
Could it be that you told me that you still loved me that made me change so quickly now I heard me when you called

up
don't you know I'm good for nothing don't like me, even though inside I know I want you too didn't want to tell you what to do
