"Stop to think"

You never wanted me to go.
You didn't dare to let me know.
That luck could turn back to my side.
I knew my wishes qualified.
So why won't you let me show who I am.

I'm not doing this because of you.
And I'm not here because you want me to.
I know you're feeling you can see me through.
Well, it's all lost the moment I stop to think.

Now I'm leaving you in fear.
But I will come back every year.
To be the fifth wheel you don't need.
I'll be a reason for you to speed.
So why won't you let me show who I am.

I'm not doing this because of you.
And I'm not here because you want me to.
I know you're feeling you can see me through.
Well, it's all lost the moment I stop to think.

The moment I stop to think.
Same moment as I start to sink.
Sometimes I wish I were like you. Oh, I do.
So why won't you try to see who I am.

I'm not doing this because of you.
And I'm not here because you want me to.
I know you're feeling you can see me through.
Well, it's all lost the moment I stop to think.

I'm not doing this because of you.
And I'm not here because you want me to.
I know you're feeling you can see me through.
Well, it's all lost the moment I stop.
