This is real to me, and it's running through my veins
Driving you away
Getting rid of me, I am uttering these words
Never to return

This isn't easy for me either

This is the way it will be
You'll find it strange how little you'll miss me

Here's to letting go
Here's to letting go of all that held me down
Getting rid of me
Here's to letting go
Here's to letting go of all that held me down
Getting rid of me

I suppose that I should get a little deeper with you now
It's kinda like the feeling of watching everything around
You tumble down
But you don't seem to mind, in fact the ashes seem to be
Too beautiful for words
Never to return

I need to know you're with me now

Here's to letting go
Here's to letting go of all that held me down
Getting rid of me
Here's to letting go
Here's to letting go of all that held me down
Getting rid of me

So, I'm ready now, I'm ready
Get rid of me
